The top diagram shows a side view of a car door trim assembly. A curved trim piece, labeled 1, is being attached to a door panel. A separate component, labeled 2, is shown as a separate part, likely a clip or fastener used to secure the trim. The bottom diagram shows a side view of a car door trim assembly. A curved trim piece, labeled 4, is being attached to a door panel. A screw, labeled 3, is shown being used to secure the trim piece to the door panel.
